MailSlurp

Confidentiality Agreement

Pettman OÜ, trading as MailSlurp, and the organization identified below enter into this agreement on the date of the recipient's signature. The recipient requests access to MailSlurp's security documents to evaluate MailSlurp as a vendor or review an existing vendor relationship.

Covered documents

MailSlurp's non-public SOC 2 report, security policies and other compliance materials supplied for the review are confidential. Information the recipient can show is already public through lawful means, already held without a duty of confidence, or independently developed without using those materials is excluded.

Use and disclosure

The recipient will use the materials solely for the review described above, keep them confidential, and protect them with reasonable care. Access is limited to people MailSlurp has approved in writing who need the materials for the review and are bound by confidentiality. Any request to share the materials must also respect the report's distribution restrictions.

Required disclosure and disposal

Where disclosure is legally required, the recipient will give MailSlurp advance notice when legally permitted and disclose only the required portion. On request, the recipient will return or securely delete the confidential materials, subject to any legal retention requirement.

Term

These obligations apply for two years from the date signed below. The signer confirms that they are authorized to bind the recipient organization.

Recipient organization

Legal organization name

Authorized signer name and title

Work email

Signature

Date